Q.114. Will the Government be pleased to state:-

Reply

a) (i) Whether there is a proposal to integrate the Mysore Civil Service and the Police Service with the Indian Administrative Services and the Indian Police Services respectively; (ii) if so, the implications of such integration; (iii) how the interests of the officers now working in these services are protected;

(a) (i) It is not an integration of the Mysore Civil Service and Mysore Police Service with the Indian Administrative Service and Indian Police Service but the establishment of an Indian Administrative Service and an Indian Police Service cadre for Mysore to which Officers now in Mysore Civil Service and Mysore Police Service will be considered for initial manning;
(ii) Please see answer to (b) of Starred Question No.8 by Sri.H.C.Linge Reddy (Kolar District - General).
The Mysore Civil Service and Mysore Police Service will continue even after the setting up of the Indian Administrative Service and Indian Police Service;
(iii) Under consideration.

b) Whether it is true that, before integration, a selection of these Officers is contemplated; if so, by whom and on what basis;

(b) Yes; by the Special Recruitment Board of the Centre as provided in the Scheme.

c) Whether they contemplate compelling these Officers to appear before the Selection Board, if any; if not, the chances of those that do not appear;

(c) The steps to be taken in the matter are still under the consideration of Government. The question of compulsion has not arisen. The Special Recruitment Board will interview the Officers selected by the Local Government.

d) Whether they permit of such Officers that decline to appear to retire; if so, with what benefits?

(d) Does not arise in view of answer to (c).
